

November 8 & 9

► Chatham County Economic Summit: An Update on the Strategic Plan

Thursday, Nov. 8th, 6-9 pm, Western Senior Center, Siler City
Friday, Nov. 9th, 8 am-noon, County Ag Building, Pittsboro

The creation of an economic development strategic plan for Chatham County is nearing its midpoint. The summit will play a key role in the final phases of the plan's development.

AGENDA:

November 8: This session will present preliminary research findings, including the results of citizen input and interviews of business owners and other key leaders. It will also include preliminary information on the county's workforce and an analysis of potential categories or clusters of industries that might be targeted for Chatham county.

November 9: This session will feature focus group discussions. Potential topics include arts, tourism & recreation, traditional manufacturing, alternative energy/clean industries, biotechnology, etc.

*The Economic Summit is sponsored by the Chatham County Economic Development Corporation and will be led by staff from the University of North Carolina's Center for Competitive Economies.
